DEPARTMENT OF CONSUMER AFFAIRS
STATE OF CALIFORNIA

In the Matter of the Petition for Reinstatement
By:

OAH No. 2008110157

AMBER OLMO,

Petitioner.

PROPOSED DECISION

This matter was heard by Administrative Law Judge Chris Ruiz on November 20, 2008, in Los Angeles, California.

Petitioner Amber Olmo (Petitioner or Respondent) represented herself.

Rene Judkiewicz, Deputy Attorney General, represented the Office of the Attorney General, California Department of Justice, pursuant to Government Code section 11522.

Jurisdictional documents were presented. Testimony was taken and oral argument made. The record was held open until November 27, 2008, in order for Petitioner to submit a letter from the Fresno County District Attorney, which she did, and which was marked and admitted as exhibit 3. Thereafter, the matter was submitted for decision.

FACTUAL FINDINGS

1. On August 28, 1995 the Board of Vocational Nursing and Psychiatric Technicians (Board) issued Petitioner vocational nurse license number VN 173645.
2. On January 20, 2005, Petitioner's license was revoked, by way of default decision, because she was convicted, in 1999, of reckless driving/possession of an open alcoholic container/exceeding 100 miles per hour and, in 2001, of being under the influence of alcohol or drugs.
3. The present Petition, filed with the Board on September 24, 2008, requests reinstatement of Petitioner's vocational nurse license.
4. Petitioner admitted that she is an alcoholic and has been since age 18. She has been sober since November 26, 2003, and she attends Alcoholic's Anonymous meetings three to five times per week. Petitioner volunteers at her church and attempts to give back to her community as part of her sobriety program. Petitioner has not worked since 2005 because she stays at home and cares for her three children. Petitioner made a good appearance on her own behalf at the Petition hearing. She was completely candid and she is remorseful for her past conduct.

5. Petitioner submitted a number of letters, including one from her sponsor, which support her claim of sobriety for over five years. She also submitted a letter from her treating psychologist who finds that her treatment has helped Petitioner become more stable. Considering these letters along with Petitioner's testimony, Respondent established that she is sufficiently rehabilitated to reinstate her license with appropriate conditioners. Having her take the licensing examination, a refresher course, and issuing a probationary license which allows drug testing and medical evaluation, will adequately protect the public health, safety, and welfare.

LEGAL CONCLUSIONS

1. The burden in a petition for reduction of an administrative penalty rests, at all times, with the petitioner. (Flanzer v. Board of Dental Examiners (1990) 220 Cal.App.3d 1392, 1398.) The burden of the Petitioner herein is to establish by clear and convincing evidence that she is entitled to the requested relief.

2. Government Code section 11522 provides that a person whose license has been revoked may petition the governing agency for reinstatement, and that statute governs such petitions unless another, more specific, statute contains different provisions.

3. California Code of Regulations, title 16, section 2579.1, subdivision (b), states:

Petition for Reinstatement. When considering a petition for reinstatement of a license under the provisions of Section 11522 of the Government Code, the Board shall evaluate evidence of rehabilitation submitted by the petitioner, considering those criteria specified in Section 2579 of this article.

4. California Code of Regulations, title 16, section 2579, states:

When considering the denial of a license under Section 480 of the Business and Professions Code, the Board, in evaluating the rehabilitation of the applicant and his present eligibility for a license, will consider the following criteria:

- (a) The nature and severity of the act(s) or crime(s) under consideration as grounds for denial.
- (b) Evidence of any act(s) committed subsequent to the act(s) or crime(s) under consideration as grounds for denial which also could be considered as grounds for denial under Section 480 of the Business and Professions Code.

(c) The time that has elapsed since commission of the act(s) or crime(s) referred to in subdivision (a) or (b).

(d) The extent to which the applicant has complied with any terms of parole, probation, restitution, or any other sanctions lawfully imposed against the applicant.

(e) Evidence, if any, of rehabilitation submitted by the applicant.

5. Petitioner established that she is sufficiently rehabilitated based on the reasons set forth in factual findings 1-5. However, the public will only be fully protected only if such reinstatement is on a probationary basis. Government Code section 11522 provides the Board authority to reinstate a license upon appropriate "terms and conditions." Three years probation will be sufficient for the Board to verify Petitioner's continuing willingness to act in a lawful manner and to verify her competency as a vocational nurse in this state.

11. VIOLATION OF PROBATION

If the Respondent violates the conditions of his probation, the Board after giving the Respondent notice and an opportunity to be heard, may set aside the stay order and impose the stayed discipline (revocation) of the Respondent's license. If during the period of probation, an accusation or petition to revoke has been filed against the Respondent's license or the Attorney General's Office has been requested to prepare an accusation or petition to revoke probation against the Respondent's license, the probationary period shall automatically be extended and shall not expire until the accusation or petition has been acted upon by the Board. Upon successful completion of probation, the Respondent's license will be fully restored.

12. TAKE AND PASS LICENSURE EXAMINATION

As a condition for reinstatement of a license, Respondent shall take and pass the licensure exam, within two years, currently required of new applicants to resuming practice. Respondent shall pay the established examination and licensing fees.

All standard terms or any other terms of probation shall be tolled until the Respondent has successfully passed the licensure examination and notice of licensure has been mailed to the Respondent by the Board. The Respondent's failure to pass the licensure examination within two (2) years shall be considered a violation of his probationary status.
